CARPENTER - Possible Forthcoming Trip to U. S.

Ref: B644-24376

1. Paragraph 1 reference indicates that several foreign police officials have told CARPENTER of their disappointment, if not downright disgruntlement, with their respective tours of the GENDARMERIE installation, while they were in the U. S. We have learned that such complaints are not unique, and the gist of the latter part of paragraph 1 reference has been passed informally to the GENDARMERIE liaison officer.

2. However, lest CARPENTER should hold any misconceptions as to what he may expect on his tour, we believe he should be informed of the nature of the trips open to him:

- a) GENDARMERIE Tour. CARPENTER can expect to see nothing more than the overt facilities of GENDARMERIE, i. e. those areas seen by any tourist who visits the GENDARMERIE building. He will, however, be accorded his own guide and at the end of his tour be given access to GENDARMERIE specialists knowledgeable in fields of special interest to CARPENTER. He should not expect to see the Chief of GENDARMERIE.
- b) New York City Police. CARPENTER can expect the red-carpet treatment should he choose to go to New York.
- c) Industrial Plant Security Forces. If CARPENTER should desire to look over the security measures and forces of a U. S. industry, and discuss problems encountered in maintaining such security, such a tour can be arranged.
- d) Small-city Police Forces. Same as for b.) above.

- e) University Police School. Arrangements can be made for CARPENTER to visit any of the mid-West universities which offer police training.
  - f) Briefing on Satellite Police Forces and/or Committee on a Committee to Police Rights. Arrangements can be made for IGP and/or appropriate staffs to discuss this subject with CARPENTER.
3. Our discussion of the above tours is indeed sketchy. We hope, however, that you may gain some idea of opportunities open to CARPENTER so that you in turn may determine his desires. Once we establish his date of arrival, length of stay, and general expectations, we shall try to amplify our brochure.
